SÃO PAULO FILM COMMISSION

São Paulo, the financial and technological capital of Brazil, represents 25% of the Brazilian film market. It is a city, due to its infrastructure and qualified workforce, fully prepared to host major film productions from all over the world.

São Paulo Film Commission is dedicated to the promotion of the city as a film-friendly place. The office is responsible for film permits with an entirely online process as well as information about the local film industry, working as a partner for producers.

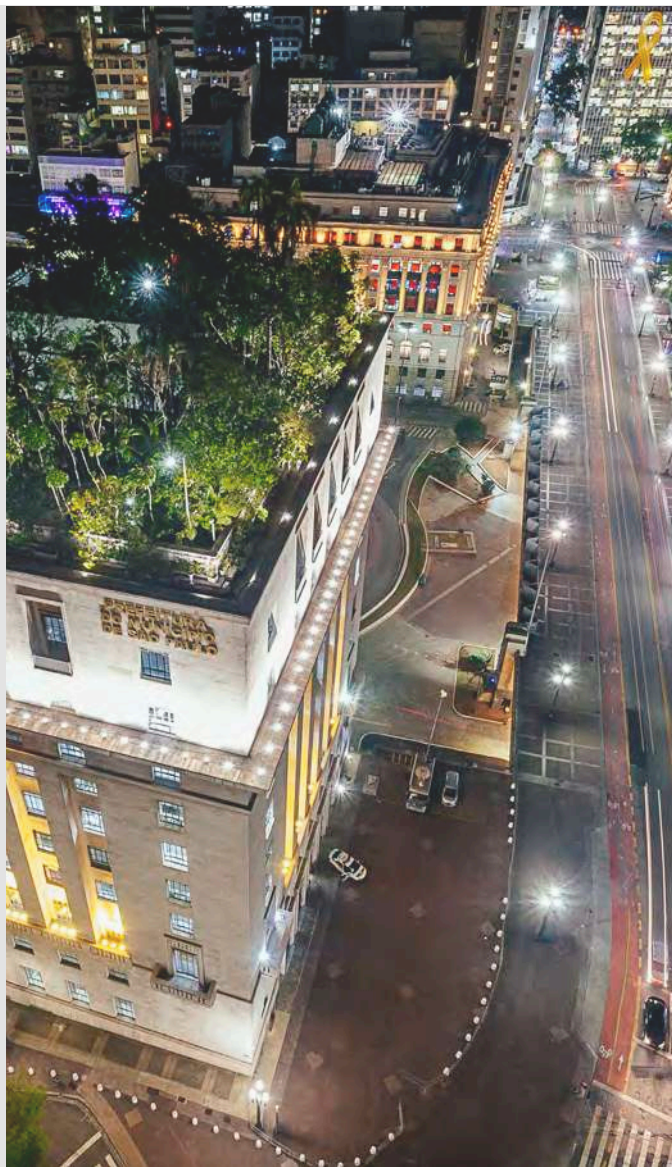

CASH REBATE PROGRAM

CASH REBATE

from 20%
to 30%

Following the great success of the first edition of the program, which was considered by Olsberg-SPI one of the most modern cash rebate programs in the world, São Paulo launches in a joint action between the City and State Governments, the 2022 version with 4 times the investment of the previous year.

A night scene on a city street. In the foreground, a person stands with their back to the camera, looking down a wet street. In the middle ground, a camera is mounted on a dolly, being operated by a person. The street is wet and reflects the city lights. The word "CONTENTS" is written vertically in large white letters on the right side of the image.

OLHAR DISTRIBUIÇÃO

Olhar Distribuição was born from the desire to seek plurality of experiences, worldviews, and to show the diversity that exists in the context in which we live.

Each film has its own universe, full of colors, textures, smiles, dilemmas, and culture.

What moves Olhar is to cross the boundaries that limit fictional or real worlds, to take the films to other looks, with different realities, in order to sensitize and provoke reflection.

With the purpose of promoting films that dialogue with contemporaneity, we understand that the moment is also to look at the multiplicity of realities and narratives.
